Scott McElhenney and Matt Beach, Mr. Gemberling and Mr. Holan

Classic cars, classic rock and roll, classic schools, all give a special feeling, one of good times past, good times to come. They have endured through the long years of change, remaining respected and treasured. And somewhere, somehow, between now and then, they have become classics.

Wayfarer sunglasses, top down convertible, radio plays your favorite song. Sun shines, flashes from brilliant chrome, glossy paint. Youth's classic freedom. "Live like you want to live." But freedom doesn't come easy. It's learned. Sometimes it's a hard lesson.

Yet there's no better place to learn this timeless lesson than here, in the state's classic school. There's not another school like it. No other with such a great student body, campus or faculty. No school with enduring tradition like ours. You can feel that in the halls, see it in our faces.

Look at us! What do you see? Hope. Pride. Spirit. We are alive - Motion. Power. Drive. We are the students that make Great Falls High School what it is. We hold this school in our hands, we shape it.

For years GFHS has been molded by people like you and me. Through the changes, through good times, and bad it is the people who make the difference. We may leave, walk the long road, but Great Falls High will sit safely here, a classic.

D.S.

Yet always

That's another trait of a classic - taking changes in stride. A classic can't rightly be called so unless it has assimilated the best and worst of time's gifts into a solid and unique cast. GFHS has seen and absorbed plenty of changes over the years - this one was no exception, what with a new face in the Assistant Principal's office, new lockers on the walls, and even a new class in our corridors.

The old green lockers are gone now - no longer do they collect the odds and ends of existence or lurk in the shadows, devouring light. Perched in their place are lockers of a different feather. Bright and shiny and strong, but at heart much the same.

Another change is seen in the Assistant Principal's office where Mrs. Karol Johnson, our first ever female Assistant Principal, has set up shop, replacing former right hand man Cal Ryder. "Getting back into the swing of high school" was Mrs. Johnson's biggest change as she first grasped the reins of administration here at Great Falls High.

Getting into the swing of high school has also been a challenge for our thirty-seven new teachers. A challenge and change well met.

Now fifty-five years have passed since the old lockers were installed, five since we've had a new Assistant Principal, and thirty-two since a Freshmen class graced our halls. Some may say that's been over thirty very good years - but in truth the freshmen have lent a new vitality and energy to an old and staid classic. For them "Bison Pride" is a new way of life.

Changes make the classic strong - new blood, new ideas, new faces - they are all things to welcome with open eyes. This is the time - "Turn and face the strange ..."

-D.S.

Home again! Mrs. Price returns to GFHS after a three year absence.

Changing

New Assistant Principal Mrs. Karol Johnson chats with Kent Reiersgaard and Shawna Martinson about their senior year.

Freshmen Mike Damm, Vince Kornick, and Jason Hunsinger enjoy their new position at GFHS.

Royal Blues

Behind the scenes Dave Greenwood and Julie Tonkovich work out the kinks.

Chamber Singers: Front: Debbie McGregor, Chu-Ling Tsay, Paul Lincoln, Rob Loch, Meghan David Back: Liisa Kertulla, Bryan Martin, Ken Spradlin meet the Beatles.

Ravishing in red - Jill Walker slinks across the stage in her "risque mini-skirt."

Kristy Shipley and Eric Poor.

Tom Gilbert and Jill Walker

Mike Meeks and Donna Bicsak

Men of stature, emcees Louis Race and Steve Klepps keep the Queens Assembly swinging along.

Stella's Shape Down Show - Heather McGregor helps Billie Jo LaTray, Kathleen Noonan, and Sienna Loftus gain a few unneeded pounds.

Heads turned as masters of ceremonies Louis Race and Steve Klepps announced each couple - Kristy Shipley and Eric Poor - Jill Walker and Tom Gilbert - Heather McGregor and Lance Bigelow. Heads remained turned as the entrances continued - Sandi Wells and Will Glenn - Donna Bicsak and Mike Meeks. Following the mandatory first-look-at-your-candidates, The Blue Notes, directed by Tim Holtan, took flight with the Weather Report tune "Birdland". Close on their heels came modeling by the candidates. The ladies showed us what it was really like way back when as they raged through the ages from 50's cool to 70's punk. Following the Chamber Singers well received medley of Beatle's songs, the candidates showed off their talents with dance, song, and skits. Soon after the drama department presented alumni awards to some of our lesser known "graduates".

Then a last look at the candidates and off to class to vote for our favorites.
-D.S.

"Go away kid, you bother me." Bret Levandowski stands in for "graduate" W.C. Fields as Drama Department presents "alumni" awards.

"Don't Tell Me You Love Me" - backed by local band Underground, Donna Bicsak sings a popular Night Ranger song.

Heather McGregor and Lance Bigelow

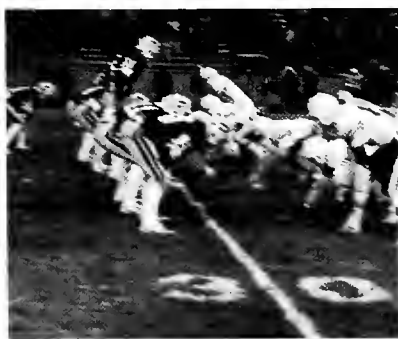

Sandi Wells and Will Glenn

Pretty girls with scared smiles and nervous, vulnerable glances stand beneath the harsh white light. Homecoming Queen candidates, held up to be admired and dissected - praised and criticized - a knife cutting both ways. Those chosen have no choice, be they surprised or scared there is no turning back. 1985 - Donna Bicsak, Heather McGregor, Kristy Shipley, Jill Walker, and Sandi Wells - now it's your turn to ride through the bitter wind in open cars. Your turn to stand in the wet grass and smile and hope. Then when it's announced and cheers ring in the hollow night sky, look up towards the frozen stars and smile.

Donna Bicsak was Homecoming Queen.
-D.S.

Raging through The Ages, the International Club, wins the float competition.

Miley Skinner

"Oh don't sorrow, no don't weep for tonight, at last
I am coming home
I am coming home"

-U2-

Homecoming is a return, a celebration. Show your spirit - be something you're not - for a day, a week. Dressing up like the past - 20's, 50's, 80's - or like flags, blue and white, advertising allegiance. Swath the halls in streamers, banners - school colors and rivalries on brown paper. Pep Assembly, "Give me a B-I-S-O-N" and stomp, cheer, whistle. Stuff napkins in chicken wire on wooden frames, weeks of preparation, then a bright drive down a crowded street towards a rendezvous with fate - city garbage trucks haul them away. Gray day and black night. Cold crowd cheers, "Get warm! Get fired up!" Fingers freeze, toes crack, huddle under blankets. Slip away before it's done, deserting, miss the score, miss the end - Montana playoffs (two) or stay and wish for it to be done with. Victory and celebration. So dance! A warm time in the old gym tonight - live band, crowd, we're all friends here - for tonight, at last, we've come home.

-D.S.

Catch the Spirit

The screaming Bison band gives their all—every pep assembly, every game, every time.

Waiting for the sun are Brian Huston, Mike Dion and Ryan Stevenson.

Mrs. Tuttle aims for Bison spirit.

Toeing the line, the color guard leads the Homecoming parade up Central Avenue.

The Art club float winds back and forth like Chinese New Year.

Clothes Minded

Fashion follows fashion, works it's way through from the underground (L.A. dives and New York night clubs). Don't get it wrong! Fashion doesn't mean glossy pages in Vogue magazine or Seventeen. Then fashion = follow. Check it out - What've we got? Who are your trend setters? Are you fashion conscious? Look out! Comin' in low - loafers, boat shoes, plastic. "Turn to the right - Fashion!" Comin' up! - What've we got? - Stirrup pants, sheath dress. Levi's - button-fly - five-oh-one - blues. What's your look? Baggy, slick, rude, or casual - my what a large shirt you have! Haircuts and make up - "make up to break up" - What's new wave? Old wave? New romance? Bright and loud - think I've heard it before - slipping into to past. Get that paisley shirt of your dreams. Hey! Don't know! Shopping fast, cruising closets, searching secondhand - labeled, classified, fit into fashion. Trends, fads, cliques. Show who you are by what-you-wear.

Bison Thunder rocks the fieldhouse.

Between Friends

On the road - the Bison teach the Boze-man Hawks a comeback lesson.

After the end of another remarkable half-time show, Mike Hall and Quincie Albrecht head for the stands.

Sarah Smile - Bison sprinter "Rip" Van Winkle.

Incognito - Shani Renning hides behind sunglasses and loud prints.

Bison way of life

Ricky Spellman relaxes while the girls sweat out a win over Helena Capital.

California dreamin' - Quincie Albrecht dons sandals and sunglasses for a day.

Dressed for success, Callie Kernaghan, Barb Becker, Nick Hovevar, Sydney Koldstad, Erin Church and Brennan Swanberg make the most of a chilly Homecoming evening as down on the field the Bison deliver with a tough victory over Butte.

Some times you just have to cut loose to
fun...
We did!

We're having much more fun! Raeann Eustance, Kari Frank and Chris Compson enjoy their day in the sun.

After shaking the dust off the rafters in the pep assembly, Jaime Taber and Louis Race need a little dusting off themselves as they portray a couple of venerable graduates.

The hand may be quicker than the eye, but Sam Eidson can't quite escape the camera.

Diane Ginnaty, Michaela Anderson, Leah Viste, Tawnya Olds and "Mr. Ketchup", Phil Hogenson, are prepared to handle every request at the yearbook concession stand.

Another Bison night - Shannon Grau and Tom Trunkle part of the home crowd.

FACULTY

THE DDACC THE DRASS

On The Go

Mr. Bennetts escapes from GFH to San Diego and a different kind of zoo.

At home on horseback - Mrs. Johnson.

Karol Johnson, Assistant Principal; Gary Davis, Assistant Dean; Bill Salonen, Principal; Enid Ikeda, Dean of Students.

Like looking through the family scrapbook. Favorite vacations, smiles of freedom in a long year - favorite places and people - etched into memory - set and gilded in photographs. Maybe under the picture, written in a faded hand, dates and names.

Can't you remember those long ago times? Search - violently - gently. Can't you feel them standing, watching, waiting? A silent throng of memories. Let them out - they pour, splashing on the page - pooling like words and pictures and swirling colors.

Open the book - leaf through, see the smiles of real life and real people. Family. Not suit jackets and ties, not disembodied voices crackling over dusty loudspeakers, nothing - nothing but human - just like the rest of us. Turn the pages - it's the same everywhere ...

-D.S.

Mr. Davis shoots the rapids.

Mr. Salonen hikes with man's best friend.

Mrs. Bell skis the slopes of Showdown with her son, Steve.

Mrs. Ikeda takes a breather during a walk in the forest.

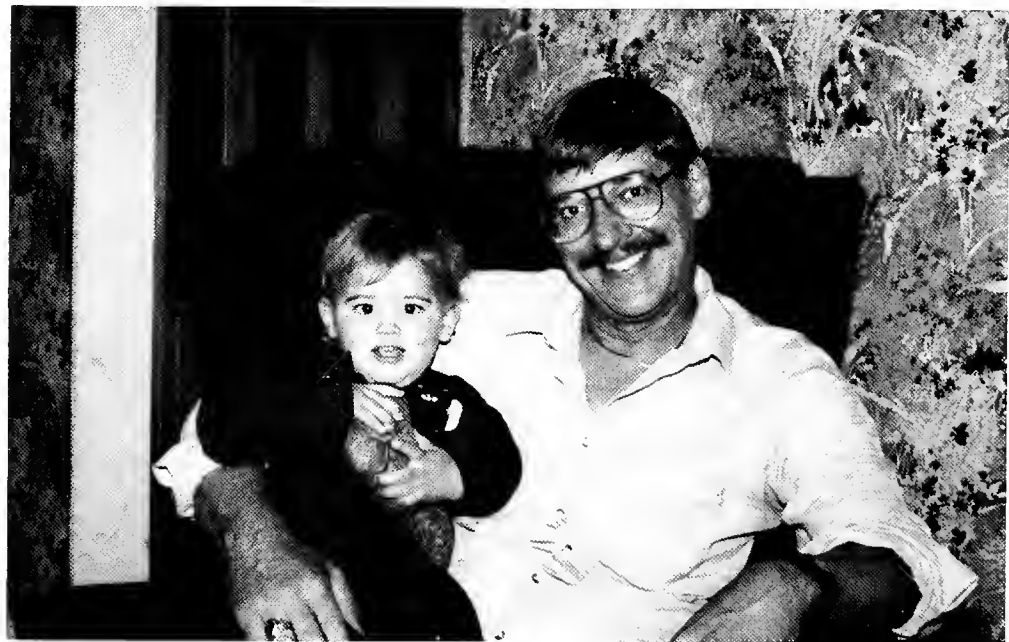

ENGLISH ENGLISH

Family Ties

Mrs. Dailey poses with her husband and two children.

Skinned knees and uncertain smiles - Mrs. Steffani walks with her grandchildren in summertime at Giant Springs.

Father and Son - Mr. Paul and Tyler take it easy.

Mr. Smith and family go to Mexico!

Old Fashioned Fun - Mrs. Oeleis and family travel back in time for this 1800's style photo.

Look - There's the family vacation. Remember when? Kodachrome windows into another life. The faces seem familiar - the places look the same. We've been there. Images from a common wealth of experience. Years from now, a trip through the attic - gently brushing dust from the rafters. Quiet memories. The taste of well aged good times lingers in the air. Faces of favorite relations, friends - smile from glossy pages in a well work scrap book. People like that, faces like that - thoughts wander and the floorboards creak...

-D.S.

Alex Rosenleaf sleeps peacefully in Mrs. Rosenleaf's arms.

Mrs. Veatch takes in the sights amidst the scenic Columbia Ice Fields.

Mrs. Mewes poses for a family portrait.

Front: Sarah Alling, Drama 1-2 and English 5-6; Daniel Hjelvik, English 3-4, 7-8; Kathleen Rhynard, English 1-2, Speech I, Debate, Second: Mary Fagenstrom, English 3-4, Cheerleading; Linda Ballew, English 1-2, Iniwa; Angela Nagengast, English 3-4, 5-6, Roundup; Velma Sabo, English 5-6; Arlee Castle, English 1-2; Diane Dailey, Reading Lab; Mary Ellen Mewes, Reading Lab; Mary McPhail, English 7-8; Orville O'Keefe, Developmental Reading. Third: Chris Veatch, English 1-2, 5-6; William Broderick, English 5-6, 7-8; Anne Baack, English 5-6, 7-8, Vivian Pledge, Developmental Reading. Back: Jerry Smith, English 1-2, 3-4; Timothy Paul, English 1-2, 7-8, Comp.

Taking It Easy

Sun and solitude on Swan Lake - Mrs. Nagengast floats away her cares.

Shortly after Tye Ballew's birth Mrs. Ballew finds herself with diapers to fold and time on her hands.

Every inch a "homemaker" - Mrs. Castle builds this house from the ground up.

Miss Rhynard lavishes some personal attention on her favorite horse.

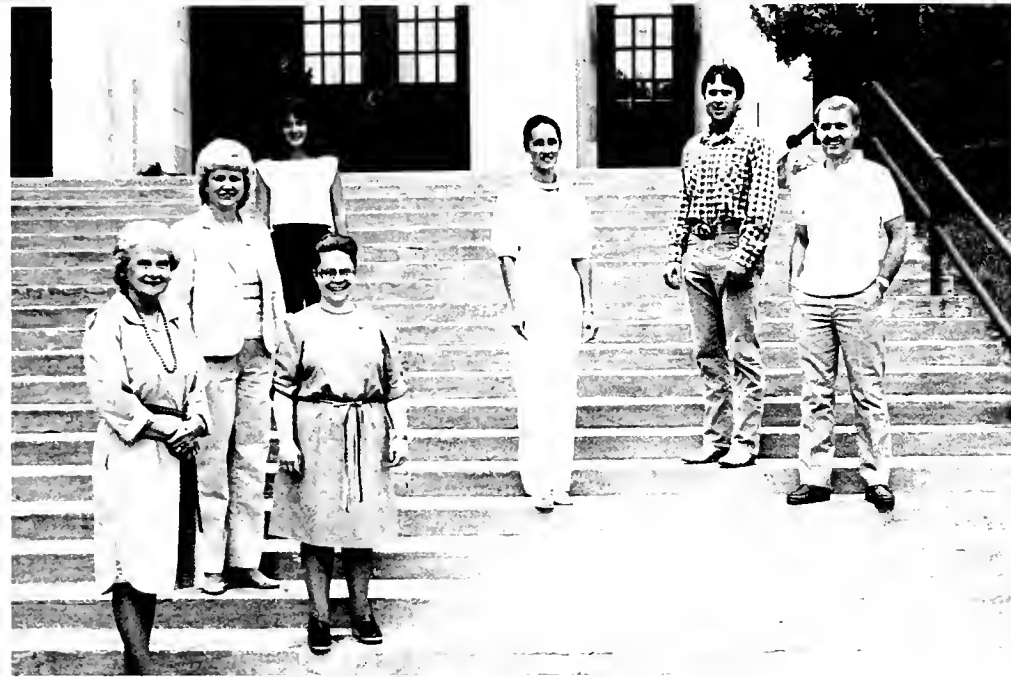

His life was saved by Rock & Roll! - Heavy metal enthusiast "Jamming" Hjelvik slashes out a shrieking power chord on his electric blue six-string.

Mrs. Fagenstrom, 1985 English Teacher of the Year, flashes loudly into Hawaiian Day.

DI ICI NEEC DUSIINESS

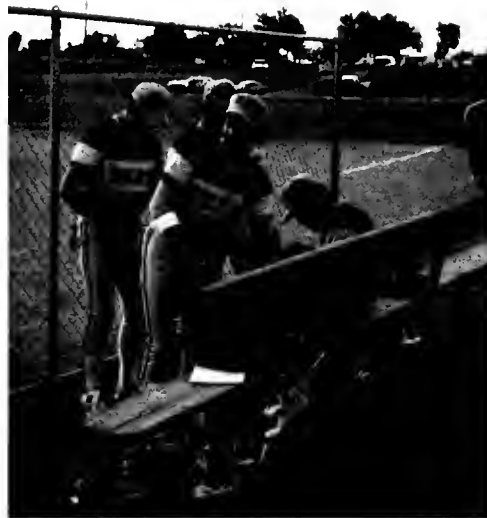

Before Pleasure

Mrs. Beck and her children wave hello from the wonderful land of Walt Disney.

Mrs. Kojetin tours Minneapolis with her husband and mother.

Blue, White, and Red Bison - Paul McMenamy played for Uke's Sports this summer.

Mrs. Slaymaker relaxes on a Mother's Day with her two children.

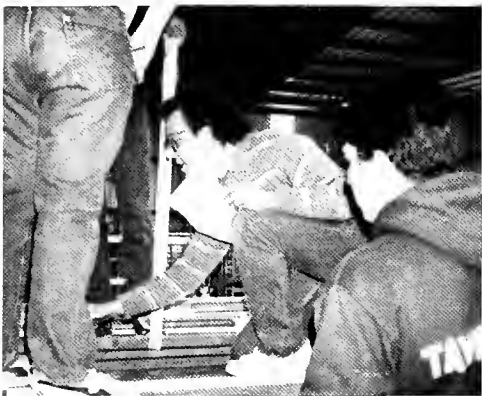

Phyllis Hemstad, Typing; Business Law, Linda Kojetin, Typing; Mary Ann Beck, Typing, Accounting; Mrs. Hilt, student teacher, Josie Slaymaker, Office Education, Typing; Paul McMenamy, Business Computer, Record Keeping; Donald Slaymaker, Distribution Education, Marketing.

Mrs. Hemstad has the honor of meeting Vice President George Bush.

HISTORY HISTORY

Having Fun

Mr. Lucero scrubs for forensics as the teachers raise money for speech nationals.

Mr. Kirk helps with the winning homecoming float.
Mrs. Reynolds rakes her lawn.

Miss Andersen charges into a turn on the Showdown slopes.

Hey - but it's more than faded memories and sneezing in the dust. Don't wait - stop in the halls and say hello - shake hands with a future memory. Tell your favorite teacher just what you think. Don't wait for time to bleach memory like a sun faded photograph. Slices of life and action jump out - highlights in a lifetime of notes. Don't let these people disappear - choking in dust. Say goodbye or see you next year - because you will - next year, and next year, and the year after that - in your mind or here on the pages of the Roundup ...

-D.S.

Mr. Collins - history book in pocket - gun in hand.
The Old Man and the Sea? - Mr. Love holds onto his catch.

Larry Lucero, Survey W.H., African/Predjudice; Sherri Anderson, Government, U.S. History; Frank Kirk, U.S. History, Survey W.H.; Larry Love, Civics; Teresa Reynolds, Government; Deanna Haddock, Psychology; Gary Warhank, Survey W.H.; Don Lang, Social Studies; Mike Tocher, U.S. History, Social Studies; Al Getten, Ancient W.H., Survey W.H.

Mr. Cusker with a souvenir from his summer job. Mr. Getten is swept off his feet.

CLUB SHOP

Outside The Shop

Splendid view - Mr. Mattingly visits Lake Louise.

Still popular with the ladies - Our own Mr. Higgins.

That's what this family scrapbook is all about - People - Teachers - Human Beings. Add a few years to your young face, or better yet, look at the faces in these photos and see.

For the first time realize what it means to be a teacher - to be a person who teaches. See behind the desk with a new light. Blow away chalk dust and false impressions and look. See a man or see a woman - only that - with human faults, human failings - but more importantly human joys, human virtues, human triumphs. A life you can touch just as much as it touches you.

Now blow the dust from the pages and gently let this scrapbook fall shut. Keep your family safe - here on the pages of the Roundup.

Couples dance the night away at the 1985 Junior Prom.

A Night In Heaven

The sky was blue and silver, the stars hung shining and in the dark they danced. The year was 1985 and the Junior Prom was in full swing. On the floor nearly 300 couples snacked, chatted, danced, or just sat and listened to the Notorious Bandits play song after song after song. It was "A Night in Heaven" and in the center of it all sat the Queen's platform soon to be occupied by Donna Bicsak and Prom King Allen Woods. But when the stars blinked out and the sky tumbled down. "Heaven" again became Earth. Just as it always had been.

This was the first year that there were fourteen candidates for Prom King and Queen. While this was more than in past years, happily they all could be described as surprised and excited. The candidates were: Donna Bicsak, Erin Campbell, Terry Getten, Heather McGregor, Kristy Shipley, Jill Walker, LeAnne Ward, Mike Diekhans, Will Glenn, Brian Halverson, Nick Hovevar, Corey Stapleton, Victor Vestman, Allen Woods

Dancin' the night away at the Winter Formal - Mike Tindel and Rosie Holly step lively to the music of the Notorious Bandits.

Crowded on the dance floor - couples sway and swirl in private worlds.

Royalty to the teeth - King Randy Zeman and Queen Sarah Brakstad lead off the post-crowning dance.

'Forever'

The temperature hovered below zero for a month then suddenly, and just in time, the Chinooks blew in and the ice disappeared slowly. The DECA Winter Formal was just around the corner and the comparatively warm weather would help boost attendance.

The evening began as the couples strolled through the archway and across the bridge into the stunningly decorated old gym. The gentlemen wore the traditional tuxedo with a crisp black predominating while the ladies shone resplendent in strikingly cut and styled formals which boldly ranged the spectrum of winter attire. The formal jumped into full swing as the Notorious Bandits cranked out favorite after favorite, and then leapt to a climax as king and queen, Randy Zeman and Sarah Brakstad, were crowned. They ascended the throne after being awarded the happy honor by the votes of the formalgoers and then led the traditional royal dance to the strains of Kenny Logans' "Forever".

After the formal, most couples dined at some of Great Falls' finer restaurants: Jake's, The Country Club, or the Black Angus. Then it was off to a friend's house for a cheery night of socializing and entertainment. The most enthusiastic straggled home only when the pale winter stars began to fade from the crisp night sky.

As the Chinook winds whispered in their tired yet satisfied ears, the formalgoers faded off to sleep and dreamt, perhaps, of formals yet to come.

Dag Christian Vinghog, Silvana Gomes, and Issam Khaireddine.

This school is no strange land for most people, nor is everyone here alone. But for exchange students this is, if not a strange land, certainly a new and different place populated with unfamiliar faces, attitudes, and customs. Their reasons for coming are varied, running the gamut from Issam Khaireddine's wish to meet American people through Dag Christian Vinghog's desire to get away from Norway for a year. They come expecting many things. Brigitte Christopherson expected a place like California, this is not such a place, but perhaps that is America's image. The truth is a little different. Nathalie Daoust found Montana fashion conservative in general and wondered just what we do on the weekends without the teen dance clubs found in Montreal. Stepping into the American dream left many missing the familiar places and faces of home. The Brazilian beaches quietly (insistently) called Silvana Gomes. And always for every student there was the whisper of family left behind for a year, letters from home were never quite like being there, never quite like being home.

Now imagine a land seen only second hand. A country where America is a distant dream. Family and friends left behind. You board the plane thinking of rumors, wondering how? and what? and where? and who? Flight takes you. Landing brings a foreign way of life where any move can bring embarrassment, where any action might be a mistake. Hold your breath stepping off the plane into a strange land. This is their position and this is their triumph. Like them or not - but respect these people for they have courage and their minds are open to a new world. We learn from them even as we teach. We make one another richer.

BRIGHTEST

Seven semesters into memory, leaving behind only a grand cumulative average. Those with grades outstanding, with averages atypical, those people made up the top twenty-five of the graduating class. Whether their averages were earned with a science and math emphasis or art and drama leanings, it took a great deal of hard work and dedication in order to hold a spot in this year's top six percent. Assuredly, being placed in the top twenty-five looks just fine on any college application, yet it can be even more than that - taking the form of increased knowledge and augmented personal satisfaction.

Hello to the real world! - Goodbye GFHS - I'll miss you (maybe) - I'll do well (I think). I'll be happy (I hope). Goodbye, my friends - keep in touch, write. I will miss you! These were the good times. The best in my life? I hope not - Better Ahead! - I can see them now. Blue horizons and distant shores. They say success, happiness - Can you see them in my eyes?

Graduation took place June ninth, 1985, with baccalaureate preceding on the fifth. The all night graduation party was a big success as many graduates came to dance, play games, and say good bye. -D.S.

Student government is a driving force behind the scenes at GFHS and few people realize the work that can go with election to office. Once elected, one learns that student government acts as a liason between students and administration, pointing out student comments and complaints that might otherwise go unnoticed. This body also organizes and promotes Homecoming, the Junior Prom, and other social events throughout the year. People see little recognition or material reward within this activity. Therein lies the challenge of leadership - after all, hard work is its own reward. "Well, so much for control and power. Think I'll go home and watch M.T.V."

Jack and Jen Weasel, Corey Gunderson and Mimi Anthony, give Mr. Toad a bike after he wrecks yet another car.

Beep! Beep! Crash! Mr. Toad slowly crawls from the wreckage of his mangled car. The play, The Wind in the Willows, tells the story of Mr. Toad's mishaps with cars and his friends' unsuccessful attempts to stop his never-ending fascination with automobiles. The conniving weasels devise a plan to overthrow Toad Hall by befriending Mr. Toad and supporting his interest in cars. Then just when Mr. Toad seems to have overcome his obsession, the sound of an engine roars in the background.

Mr. Rat, Liisa Kerttula, stands by as Ryan Walker in the guise of Mr. Toad is shocked by Mr. Mole's (Tracy Burian's) news.

The drama department presented two hours of skits from Saturday Night Live, Carol Burnett, and Monty Python's Flying Circus on Saturday, March 8. Kooky Kuttings and Crumbly Cakes, a dessert theatre, began with "Guess What's Coming to Dinner" featuring Leah Viste, Tracy Burian, Ryan Walker, Krista Hoyer, and Lewis Race. Other skits included "Consumer Probe", "Life Was Tough Back Then", and a crowd favorite, the black comedy, Funeral Magician, with Lewis Race and Tracy Burian.

Intermission brought the ravenous hordes from the confines of the auditorium to fall upon the mouth-watering drama desserts.

The second half favorites included the search for an unknown furry beast with giant feet - "Big Foot" - featuring Poncho Eddards, Sheila Evans, and Tony Sullivan. Later Poncho Eddards tries his hand at television repair in the SNL skit, "Samurai T.V. Repairman" with Keith Harrison, and Tony Sullivan.

The drama department produced a score of well received desserts and over fifteen entertaining skits.

THE Trip

American Heritage '85

HERITAGE! The word conjures up visions of ivy covered walls or gray clad pilgrims, revolutions and civil strife, the birth of a nation, our nation. The spring of '85, eleven students took a pilgrimage of sorts, a journey into the East - The American Heritage Trip. With their chaparones, Jan Goodness and Enid Ikeda, these new age adventurers plotted a course through the cradle of our nation. Washington D.C., Philadelphia, Boston, Mt. Vernon, New York City; they saw it all, and with other students from throughout the country became intimately acquainted with the good and the bad in our nation's past. But more than that, they were introduced to a new kind of life, a life where people walk fast and every person is a stranger. They saw the theatrics of life from Broadway to Times Square and played a few roles of their own. At last turning their gaze to the West, they came flying home, their bodies housing expanded minds filled with the wonder of history.

Kerry Bucheister and Shawna Martinson enjoy the sights of Washington D.C.

TENNIS

It's In Your Court

Double dazzle with Eugene Bailey and Nick Beckstrom.

Tennis - a game of inches - a thinking game of strategy and skill. In high school it's a sport without big headlines or stands packed with screaming fans. Personal motivation led our tennis players to brave wind, snow, and oft times obscurity. In 1985 the tennis team played its guts out. In terms of dedication and effort, it was certainly a smashing season.

STATE

We've Got What It Takes

- A set of tough competitors. Juniors Ken Demmons, Boyd Kannenwisher, Mike Rausch, and Mike Perry.

Senior Tyler Kolstad takes the lead in the 110m hurdles.

Through faces filled with personal loss or triumph shine the exultation of champions. The 1985 State AA Champions were: Portia Jelinek, Margaret Melly, Raeann Eustance, Paula Talbott, Rachel Skinner, Kris Schmidt, Tia Topel, Sarah Van Winkle, Quincie Albrecht, Sydne Kolstad, and coaches Bud Talbott, Nancy Walters, and Reid Miller.

The best make it look effortless - State AA champion Kris Schmitt breezes over the hurdles towards another win.

The Roundup Staff would like to dedicate this section to the memory of Coach Dave Nebel. When he died last summer, it was a tragic loss for everyone in the Great Falls School District.

Dave Nebel started teaching in Great Falls in 1972 and before that was a stand out athlete in college and high school. From 1978 through 1985 he turned his talents to coaching as a sprint coach for the Bison Girls Track Team.

Dave Nebel was a super coach, teacher, and friend. He will be sorely missed.

Coaches Dave Nebel and Bud Talbott

Bison go the distance- Scott Claver and State champion Derek Stordahl, hammer out a 3200m against Billings West.

The secret of flight - Junior Quincie Albrecht soars over the bar.

Staying

In track and field to compete is to win, and in 1985 the Bison did plenty of both.

But there is more to track and field than statistics and win/loss columns. With the fatal injury of sprint coach Dave Nebel, the Bison girls found a determination that carried them to the top of AA track. Also at state, the boys found their footing and came out of "no-where" to claim third place.

And track is more than ribbons or trophies. "It's a demanding sport, physically and mentally," stated Senior, Joel Witte. While that is something the spectator may not be aware of, it is something the trackster never forgets. Margaret Melly (school record holder - 3200 m) did "a lot of workouts that were just me, Coach Miller, the track, and the stopwatch. Then the speed had to come from inside."

If it's so hard, why do they do it? For the fans? For the newspaper or television? Or is it something else? Senior Scott Rubino thinks so. "The most important thing about track, for me, was the sense of accomplishment that I got from really improving."

That is what it all boils down to - a special sense of achievement. Without that, there would be no reason to compete, no reason to win, and most certainly, no reason to stay on track.

COUNTRY

All-star runner Derek Stordahl smiles all the way to State.

Most Improved Bison Micah Nicolaus stands tall in the eyes of the competition.

Eager to run - The State Champions explode from the starting line.

Leader of the pack - Derek Stordahl surges to the lead.

Front: Jeff Adams, Keith Eayrs, Joel Witte, Derek Stordahl, Chris McGregor, Damon Green, Micah Nicolaus, Jenny Johnsten (Mgr). Second: Katie McElhenny, Tonya Rusch, Barb Becker, Jenny Snow, Sheila Evans, Dawn Augustine, Susan Melly (Mgr), Margaret Melly, Veronica Wendt. Third: Sarah Van Winkle, Doug Stouffer, John Bonifer, Charlie Bennett, Phil Highwood, Phil Hogenson, Shannon Martinson, Steve Reese, Chip Wilson, Jason Halseth. Back: Pam Rushing, Genelle Tennyson, Brad Eayrs, Steve Morton, Sarah Wendt, Dawn Taylor, Patty Malcomb, Amy Boobar, Leila Kotynski, Rachel White.

Suprises and suprises, both good and bad told the story for Bison cross-country in 1985. Unheralded, unsuspected, and undefeated in the regular season the Bison girls carried their winning streak throught the AA State Championships in Helena. The boys, despite high pre-season hopes had a hard time of it, winning only their first dual meet and finishing ninth at state.

Jenny Snow, as well as receiving All-State honors, was chosen by her team mates as Most Inspirational Bison. Katy McElhenney, Margaret Melly (Captain), and frosh Dawn Augustine also were selected to the AA All-State team. Most Improved Bison, Dawn Augustine, was the first frosh to letter since "Return of the Freshman" opened at GFHS.

Team Captain, Senior Derek Stordahl, a high point for the Bison through most of the regular season, garnered All-State honors and was voted Top Bison. Micah Nicolaus, a talented freshman, was chosen Most Improved as he rose from the ranks of the Novice team to Varsity alternate at State.

Next year looks especially good for the Bison girls as they lose only two senior lettermen, Margaret Melly and Veronica Wendt. The boys team may have some difficulty as they lose four lettermen to graduation (Jeff Adams, Keith Eayrs, Derek Stordahl, Joel Witte). But despite this considerable loss of talent and experience the Bison boys could be next year's suprise as the team's hidden abilities, bolstered by the younger runners begins to emerge.

The 1985 golfers drove, chipped, and putted their way through a great golf season in 1985. Long hours of practice paid off as the girls' team, led by Lisette Carter and April Grieb, burned up the greens in the regular season, taking first in Missoula and second at the Whitefish Invitational. Later in the year, behind the strong individual play of Todd Kernaghan the Bison boys took fifth at state. A "fair way" to end the season.

You've come a long way baby! The Bison football team sure did. We have the right to be very proud of them. Who would have thought after the first two games of the season, that in two months they would be playing for the State Championship.

The Bison football team and their loyal fans, that's who. The Bison pulled together and in the next six weeks fell only to Helena Capitol and CMR in their trek to the big game. With a little help from the Helena schools, the Bison made it into the playoffs. They traveled to Kalispell and revenged themselves against the Braves. This brought them to their goal - a shot at the State title. Their fans who had followed them through many snowy nights and over many long miles turned out to support them. The battle was hard fought; there really was no loser because we're awfully proud of our football team and their silver trophy.

Bison Pride, Bison Tradition, and Bison Basketball; those three phrases have a way of going together. Dick Kloppel's basketball program has a long history of turning out winners, and this year was no different. Winners are people who play with their hearts on the line; winners are people who play with Bison class. Even if this year's team didn't always come out on top, they were always lady Bison.

This winter the Bison were taking to the mats all over the state. Cut Bank, Bozeman, Billings, even C.M.R. got a piece of the action as the Bison aimed at State.

Butte, Montana - State AA wrestling - the Bison emerge with eighth place. Freshman Leif Kuno at 98 pounds takes sixth. Sean Pattee wrestling at 155 pounds comes out with a fifth place. Steve Klepps, injured early in the season, comes back to wrestle at 112 pounds and brings home a fourth. Senior Corey Stapleton puts his early season injuries behind him, drops to 119 pounds, and grabs a fourth place. The Bison's only State Champion - the man to put your money on - weighing in at 126 pounds - T.J. Campbell sticks it to 'em in Butte for his third State title.

The Bison sweated and starved, worked for every match. They stayed hungry for the win - and in wrestling that's more than a figure of speech. The world's oldest sport - alive and kicking in Bison Fieldhouse.

A Stroke Ahead

Dieter Swank blasts off as Joel Witte touches the wall at the annual Relay meet.

Freshman Monica Weaver sets at the blocks just prior to her sixth place finish in the State 100m Backstroke.

Joel Witte qualifies for State AA finals in the 100m breaststroke.

Muscles bunch and tense, eyes narrow to a focus. The water ripples, deceptively gentle. Pause and strain. Explosion - splashdown. Cold water crushes the breath from quick lungs. Perhaps man was not meant to swim.

Bring that up in the Bison Fieldhouse anytime after October and before February - anytime between 3:30 and 5:30 in the afternoon - go ahead - do it. There will be plenty of people who disagree, people who feel that maybe they were born to swim - these are the Bison swimmers.

Two hours a day, five days a week (plus meets), you can find them in the water churning out the laps, looking for the edge; freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors.

While the Bison didn't bring home any trophies this year, several swimmers came out of the State meet with individual awards; Joel Witte - sixth in the 200m breast, Jenny Leland - sixth in the 100m fly, and Monica Weaver - sixth in the 100m back. In the relays the Bison landed a sixth in the boys' medley relay (Joel Witte, Jim Stordahl, Casey McVay, Dieter Swank) and came up with another sixth in the girls' medley relay (Stephanie Edwards, Jenny Leland, Jennifer Beisel, Monica Weaver).

A handful of sixth places can't begin to show the dedication and effort that made this year a major success for a "minor" sport.

Randy LaRance goes up for two in the 1st game of Divisionals at the Four Seasons Arena. Despite his 19th consecutive game in double figures, Bison fell to Butte 63-65.

Greg Preite, Greg Guza, and Randy LaRance fight under the basket for position but Jan Nelson goes for two from the line as Bison down West for their first at home win.

Sophomore Team Front: Corey Taule, Duke Short. Second: Gavin McPherson, Dave O'Hare, Brett Hatler, Carl Memke, Don Doughty. Back: Nike O'Rourke, Mark Fought, Dustin Wilde, Rob Tangen.

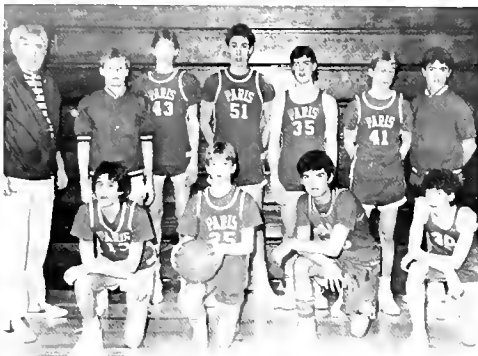

February thirteenth, what a night. The rafters were knockin' from the start. The Bison fieldhouse was packed for the cross town game. This was it, the game that means the most and we were ready, man. Like the whole season boiled down into one game, this was it, we were ready. We had the signs for Tim Hunt and KFBB, we had the cheerleaders doin' their thing, we had a rockin' band playing up a storm. We wanted to win! Terri Getten and Heidi Moncrief sang the national anthem, and you can bet that it was good. But we wanted to see some basketball, so when the colorguard cleared the floor you could tell you were in Bison country. And the crowd? The best I've seen in three years - and that's no lie. The game started out slow and close and then gathered steam behind Greg Preite's outside shots ripping through. Tom Corontozos's drive and pass, and Randy LaRance's hard work all over the floor. The Bison were hot! Buck Beaudry came in and gave a hand to the starters and so did Mike Diekhans, Mark Bruskotter and Todd kernaghan. Everyone played and that was alright. The clock was ticking down, the band was getting hotter, the crowd louder, and that was alright too. The seconds were ticking away and it looked like a Bison win - and let me tell you - a Bison win is always alright. Then that one shot by Russell, the score was tied and the time was up. OVERTIME. Oh yeah, at this point the CMR fans had begun to leave - they're sometimes like that. But the Bison were still right at home and damn we wanted a win. It was gettin' real loud in the Bison fieldhouse about then. Suddenly it was all tied up. OVERTIME. LaRance was up for the jump and the game was going. The Bison were on their feet and yelling for a win. The days of the gladiators had returned - we wanted a kill. OVERTIME. I was beginning to hate that word. Tom Corontozos to the basket. Randy LaRance to the free throw line. Greg Preite puts one in. The fans surrounded the court, fencing the Bison in. It was hot on the floor. OVERTIME. Greg Guza takes a charge. Jan Nelson sinks one. The clock is sinking down, five, four, keep an eye on that clock. CMR basket - they're ahead by one and my heart's in my shoes. The Rustlers are on the floor, the referees are hightailing it for the locker rooms and the Bison are upset in more ways than one. But damn what a game, what a game.

Driving home, the Stones were tellin' me how they can't never get no satisfaction and I thought back to the game and it sure seemed to me there were two seconds left on the clock when the ball went through the hoop, when the Rustlers stormed the court, when the referees headed for the high country. I'm almost sure there were two seconds left - but me? I'm a Bison fan.

VOLLEYBALL

"Dig It"

TOGETHER!!! ... SPIKE!!! ... ACE!!! These are the sounds of a finely tuned network known formally as the Great Falls High School Volleyball Team of the year 1985-1986.

Under the practiced tutelage of volleyball anchorman Hank Anderson, the varsity girls reported with a 10 and 4 regular season record to tournament play. After matching 16 teams in divisional and state competition the Bison wrapped up their 'net-work' by tallying a total of 21 wins offset by only 9 losses. This business venture yielded a healthy profit margin evidenced by a fourth place finish in the state tournament.

Jodie Richter takes it in the gut as she swings through her bars routine at the Great Falls Invitational.

One toe not pointed, one bent knee, a tiny mistake; in other words five one hundredths of a point - .05 points - a small margin of victory, but a victory none the less for the Great Falls High gymnastics squad. The season was hard from the start as the Bison were plagued with injuries in the gym but as Ici Schemm pointed out, head coach Marti Hardisty "never let anyone get down on themselves" and the Bison came into the state meet in fine form. Their hard work paid off as they squeaked out a victory and brought the Bison home a first place trophy. Suzy Cooper led the Bison to the State Championship, handily winning the all-around title, taking individual honors in vault and floor exercise, a second on beam, and a third on bars. Erin Campbell helped give the Bison a lead winning the individual honors in vault and the parallel bars and taking tenth on the floor. Ici Schemm, fifth in beam, was allowed to repeat two events and scored higher the second time on both vault and beam. Tina Valacich helped the Bison out with a second in the vault and eight on beam, while Jodie Richter took a seventh place on the beam. This and more propelled the Bison to a AA State Championship over Helena Capital, a State Championship by five one hundredths of a point.

Next year could be another good one for the Bison as they lose only one Senior, Erin Campbell, to graduation. Yet there will never be another team, another year, and certainly there will never be another State Championship like that of 1986.

Hut-two-three-four . . . the Great Falls High Marching Band took the field in fine form once again in 1985. Under the direction of Tim Holtan, Alan Gemberling, and drum major Julie Tonkovich, band members, along with Jan Mader's Bisonettes, braved autumn's bitter chill and many intense seven A.M. practices to perfect their performances. With a brand of spirit unique to musicians, the band kept the beat alive for the student body, in the stands as well as during the halftime shows, setting the pace for a fantastic football season. "Soundoff 1 2 3 4 - We are the Bison band, best band in all the land . . ." -and the beat goes on!

Natural Gas — It's Still A Great Buy

The average customer in our service area pays 47 cents per day per person for all the natural gas they use. Forty-seven cents what else can you buy for so little: A cup of coffee? Half a pack of cigarettes? A candy bar? Or half a gallon of gasoline? What does that 47 cents worth of natural gas buy you?

- Hot water whenever you need it
- A warm home when it's 40 below outside
- Heat for cooking, baking and clothes drying
- 24 hours emergency service for your gas appliances
- A clean and efficient product delivered to your home sight unseen 365 days a year
- Energy audits
- No-Interest Plan Loans
- Information on the latest efficient gas equipment
- Assistance in obtaining aid in paying your bill
- The Budget Plan
- Credit ... you don't pay for natural gas until after you have received it

Goofin' Off

Who's in there? Jenny Snow takes the bull by the horns, or the Bison mascot by the nose, at a Bison/Russell boys' basketball game in our Fieldhouse.

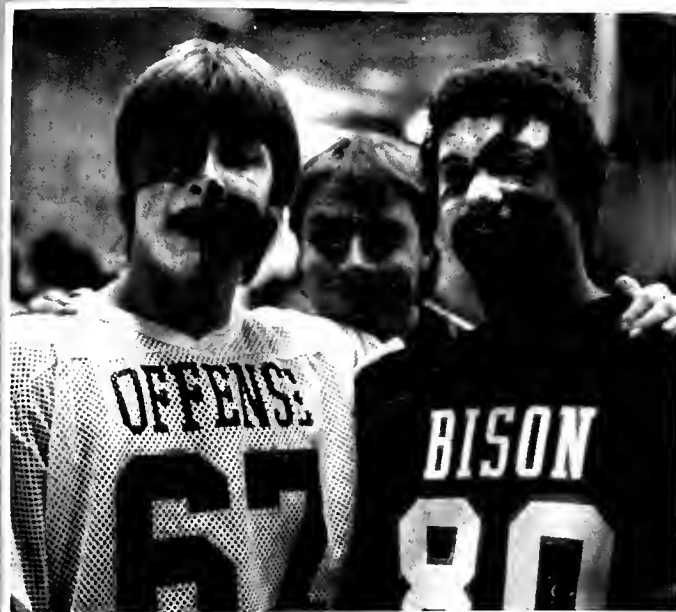

A tree! A tree! Student Body President Corey Stapleton.

Smiling pep band members Rita Suek enters the fieldhouse for an assembly.

Bison warpaint - Dave Jacobsen and Rob Phillips don blue and white for the boys' basketball game at EMU. Gene Welton has so much spirit he's got to hold it in.

BISON stand above the crowd. They're on their feet for the Bison fight song, "Anchors Aweigh" at the 2nd regular season Russell game.

The doors open on a classic vista, a final stop to linger over memories and suddenly - too swiftly - the bright future calls. Look one last time into the familiar shadows and tangled intricacies of life in high school - step forward - the future calls - the door stands open.
